

Mr. Gavin M. Naquin, Greensboro Police Department (Retired) Greensboro, NC

Gavin retired in 2012 as a Vice Narcotics Detective of the Greensboro Police Department, conducting undercover drug enforcement operations. Gavin served as the Police Academy Coordinator for the Greensboro Police and oversaw the day-to-day operations of the Academy as well as taught several blocks of instruction. Gavin managed the Academy curriculum, calendar, organized the structure of the curriculum delivery and mentored the Cadets in the Academy. Gavin is also a Master Instructor and he used those skills to help develop new Law Enforcement Instructors.

Prior to running the Academy, Gavin worked in the Patrol Division from 1982-1999. During that time, Gavin was a Field Training Officer, LE Instructor teaching Use of Force, SCAT, Officer Survival and Tactical Vehicle Stops. He received several commendations during his patrol years. Gavin also worked on his off time teaching at several community colleges across NC developing and implementing specialized curriculum in his areas of expertise.

Gavin is now enjoying his retirement with his four wonderful children and five beautiful grandchildren.
