

Mr. David Harvey, Deputy Director, International Association of Directors of Law Enforcement Standards and Training (IADLEST), Michigan

Before becoming the Director of the Madonna University Public Safety Training Institute, David was Director of the Michigan Commission on Law Enforcement Standards for seven years. David is a retired police officer spending most of his career with the City of Garden City Michigan, advancing through the ranks and retiring as the Chief of Police. He was also the Police Chief of the Detroit Metropolitan Airport Authority and was the City Manager for the City of Garden City. David began his law enforcement career as United States Army Military Police Officer. David has traveled to other countries to consult and speak on law enforcement issues and led a team to audit and consult with the Lagos Nigeria Law Enforcement Institute. David earned a Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice from Madonna University in Livonia Michigan and Master's Degree in Public Administration from the University of Michigan Dearborn.