

Robert De Frang, Wisconsin State Patrol & Western Technical College

Robert De Frang is a 33- year veteran of the Wisconsin State Patrol (retired in 2015). He has served as a law enforcement trainer since 1991, with the last 15 years assigned to the Wisconsin State Patrol Academy, serving as a recruit class program director and the division's tactical skills coordinator. He is a Wisconsin Department of Justice (WDOJ) certified instructor and master instructor in a number of law enforcement training programs (firearms, vehicle contacts, professional communication, emergency vehicle operations and control, tactical response and hazardous materials and weapons of mass destruction) and has served and currently serves, on a number of Wisconsin's Training and Standards Advisory Committees. Bob has also served as an adjunct instructor for the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration's National Training Center out of Arlington Virginia.

Bob is currently a law enforcement adjunct instructor and master instructor at Wisconsin's Western Technical College. He is also currently the chair of the college's Law Enforcement Advisory Board for the Associate Degree program and Law Enforcement and Corrections Certification programs.