

Ms. Pamela J. Tully, Retired Assistant Director, North Carolina State Bureau of Investigation, St. Petersburg, FL

Pam retired in 2010 as the Assistant Director of Special Operations with the NC State Bureau of Investigation. This position oversaw specialized field operations to include: Special Services Unit (Clandestine Laboratory Response, Bomb Squad, Criminal Apprehension Program), Special Response Team, Air Wing Operations, Computer Crimes Investigations, Diversion and Environment Crimes, Criminal Information and Identification Unit, and the Intelligence and Technical Services Section.

Pam's previous experience also included field operations and assignment to the SBI Training Section. During this assignment Pam co-coordinated the SBI New Agent Training Academy. Specialized certifications were held in Physical Fitness, Defensive Tactics and Firearms. This position worked closely with the NC Justice Academy and prior to the SBI Pam served as an Instructor Coordinator at the Justice Academy. Lesson plan development and course coordination were developed in Crime Scene Investigation, Sexual Assault Investigation, Basic and Advanced Criminal Investigation.

Pam started her career as a Police Officer with the Hickory Police Department in 1979 and then joined the SBI in 1984. After retiring from the SBI Pam also served with the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, Investigator for the NC State Bar, Seminar Developer for the NC Sheriff's Association in the area of Sex Offender Tracking. Due to changing family dynamics the past 2 years of consisted of care-giving for her father who was diagnosed with Alzheimer's/ Dementia.