

Kerry Avery, Instructional Designer, Odin Training Solutions, Inc., Edmonton, Canada

Kerry is a training consultant and the owner of Odin Training Solutions Inc. She has been designing online, classroom and blended learning training programs for over 15 years. Kerry has been working with law enforcement training for over ten years. She has worked with agencies at every level of government in Canada, organizations in the United States, with the national police in Central America and Ukraine. In addition to designing and developing training programs, Kerry facilitates instructor development programs and coaches trainers through the design process.

Kerry has a Master's degree in Education through Athabasca University, and certificates in adult education from the University of Alberta and Brock University. She presented at the IADLEST conference in 2013, ILEETA 2014-2019, and the International Association of Chiefs of Police conference in 2015, 2017, and 2019. Kerry is also the Managing Editor for the ILEETA Journal.