

Hugh Edgar Summers Jr., CPL, Greensboro NC Police Department (Retired)

Eddy Summers is a 35-year veteran of law enforcement. He retired in 2013 as a corporal with the Greensboro, North Carolina Police Department. Eddy continues to serve as a reserve officer with his department.

While working full-time, Eddy spent nearly 24 years assigned to the Department's Canine Unit as a handler and as a trainer of both canines and handlers. Additionally, he served 19 years with the Department's Special Response Team.

Eddy has been a general instructor for more than 20 years and serves as a specialized instructor in the areas of Hazardous Materials and Subject Control and Arrest Techniques. He continues to serve as an instructor in law enforcement academies and community colleges.